

SCOTTISH
BIODIVERSITY
WEEK 2011

21-29 May

Events in Lewis & Harris

Tuesday 24th May

Urgha to Molineganais Guided Walk 10am-2.30pm

Meet at Urgha—1 mile east of Tarbert, Harris (NB 184 004)

An opportunity to visit the remote village of Molineganais on the shore of Loch Trolemaraig. This is a sheltered sea loch with plenty of wildlife and a wealth of cultural heritage.

Sturdy footwear, waterproofs and packed lunch required.

Contact: Robin Reid, North Harris Ranger
Tel: 01859 502222

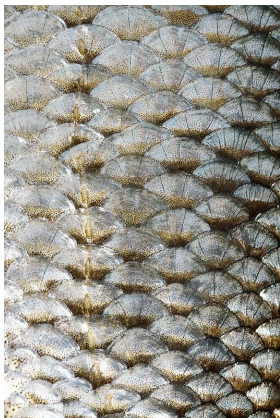

© Duncan MacPherson

Saturday 28th May

There's something fishy going on...

An Lanntair Saturday Visual Art Club

P1- P2: 1 - 2pm, P3 - P4: 2.30 - 3.30pm, P5-P7: 4 - 5 pm

Explore fish scales with the digital microscope and make drawings.

Where : Education room, an Lanntair, Stornoway

Cost : £3

Booking essential at an Lanntair Box office on 01851 708480
or www.lanntair.com

To find out about what you can do for biodiversity visit www.cne-siar.gov.uk/biodiversity