Thank you for your contribution and giving us the opportunity to hear your view. Your view will be given full consideration at the Child Protection Case Conference and assist the Conference in reaching its decision. You have the right to disagree with any decision made at the Case Conference and this will be recorded within the minute of this meeting. You may also appeal against your registration on the Child Protection Register, or any decision not to place your name on the Register.

If you are not satisfied with the service you receive from Western Isles Council or any other agencies you have the right to make a formal complaint. If you wish further information on any of these procedures please speak to the Chair of the Child Protection Case Conference or any professional involved, who will be able to advise you on the course of action to take.
