Voting by post

Only one person can apply to vote by post using this form.

Voting by post is an easy and convenient way of voting if you are unable to get to the polling station.

You can use this form to apply to vote by post for a particular election or referendum, for a set period of time or for all future polls. Postal votes can be sent out to addresses in the UK and abroad.

In Scotland, you must be aged 16 or over on polling day to vote in local elections and elections to the Scottish Parliament. You must be 18 or over on polling day to vote in elections to the UK Parliament and European Parliament.

How do I apply to vote by post?

- Fill in the postal vote application form.
- Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature. Your date of birth and signature are needed on this application form, and again when you use your postal vote. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details at the bottom of this page.

Please note: You must return your postal vote application form by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll. If you are not already registered to vote, your application to register must have reached your local electoral registration office by midnight, 12 working days before the poll.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- When an election or referendum is going to be held, your ballot paper will be sent to you in the post. To find out when your ballot paper will be issued you can contact your elections team at your local council.
- Make sure you return your postal vote so that it arrives by the close of poll, otherwise it will not be counted. A Freepost envelope is included in your postal ballot pack. However, if you are sending it from overseas, you will need to pay the postage.
- If it is too late to send your vote back by post, you can hand it in on polling day to the elections team at your local council, or drop it off at certain polling stations.
