TRO-13/01

STATEMENT OF REASONS

This experimental order is a temporary extension of the (B895 Newmarket to North Tolsta, Isle of Lewis) (40mph Speed Limit) Order 2012 and will last 12 months. The section of road affected is 520m long and is located between the junction to Na Creachan and the Gress Cemetery. In this case, the effect of the order will be assessed during the 12 month period and the findings reported to the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee of Comhairle nan Eilean Siar.

The reason for implementing this Order is in the interests of road safety, and to allow the likely impact of a permanent speed limit at the locality to be assessed.
