

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984

COMHAIRLE NAN EILEAN SIAR

(ASSAYE PLACE, STORNOWAY)
(PROHIBITION OF DRIVING - EXCEPT FOR ACCESS)
EXPERIMENTAL ORDER 2020

Comhairle nan Eilean Siar proposes to make “The Comhairle nan Eilean Siar (Assaye Place, Stornoway) (Prohibition of Driving – Except For Access) Experimental Order 2020” under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

The effect of the Order will be to prohibit any person from driving or causing or permitting to be driven, any motor vehicles from Willowglen Road in an easterly direction through Assaye Place. Access will be available for residents and vehicles servicing properties on Assaye Place. The Order is an Experimental Order and will last initially for a period of Eight months, from the date it starts.

The Order is intended to prevent Assaye Place being used as a through-road from Willowglen Road to Macaulay Road. Access will still be available in a Westerly direction from Macaulay Rd through to Willowglen Rd.

Full details of these proposals are in the Draft Order which, together with a map showing the extent of the road affected and a statement of the Comhairle’s reasons for proposing to make the Order may be examined on the Comhairle’s website <https://www.cne-siar.gov.uk/roads-travel-and-parking/traffic-regulation-orders/>. If you are unable to access the website please call 01851 600 501 during normal office hours.

Any person wishing to object to the proposed Order should send details in writing by email to Traffic-Order-Consultations@cne-siar.gov.uk or in hard copy to the Chief Executive, Comhairle nan Eilean Siar, Council Offices, Sandwich Road, Stornoway, HS1 2BW to be received no later than 4pm, Friday 11 September 2020. Objections should state the full name and address of the objector, the Order to which they relate and the grounds on which they are made.
